

Wilshire
BAPTIST CHURCH

February 25, 2024
Second Sunday in Lent

Preparing for worship

Today, 11 Wilshire members are worshipping alongside Primera Iglesia Bautista de Río Piedras in San Juan, Puerto Rico. First Baptist Church Río Piedras is a historic congregation. Established in 1899, it was the island's first Baptist church and at one time its largest. Today they celebrate their 125th anniversary, and what a joy it is that we, by extension, get to celebrate with them.

The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship strengthened ties with churches in Puerto Rico after Hurricane Maria decimated the island in 2017. Maria completely destroyed the island's power grid and left nearly half a million homes damaged or in ruins.

FBC was approached by the Red Cross to serve as the agency's headquarters during the initial phase of relief, and the church unanimously agreed. In order to do so, the congregation removed all the pews from the sanctuary and replaced them with cots, mucking buckets and pallets of bottled water. Many members have called this a pivotal point in the life of their congregation.

They knew they needed to be more involved in the restoration of their communities and as a result were trained by Baptist Men of North Carolina to lead a sustainable disaster relief program after BMNC left the island. Since then, FBC has received thousands of people and has connected teams like ours to families who are still rebuilding their lives and homes five years later.

According to church member and groups coordinator Zulma Zalaba, this effort has completely changed the DNA of their church. They now, she says with a beaming smile and so much pride, are more attuned to the needs of their community and are bearing witness in places they never would have imagined.

This week our team will be replacing the roofs of two homes for families who have been working with a community social worker. Please keep the team, the families and the congregation of FBC Río Piedras in your prayers. We look forward to sharing with you the stories that emerge from a week of hard work and fun in the sun.

Opening Sentences

Vera Scheuermann

On this second Sunday in Lent, we gather acknowledging that our fear of scarcity often leads us to doubt the fullness of God's provision. In this next hour, may we practice letting go and exercising a faith that allows us to land in the loving and abundant arms of our Lord.

The promise made to Sarah and Abraham and their descendants — that they would inherit the world — did not depend on the Law; it was made in view of the righteousness that comes from faith. For if those who live by the Law are heirs, then faith is pointless and the promise is worthless. The Law forever holds the potential for punishment. Only when there is no Law can there be no violation. Hence everything depends on faith; everything is grace. Thus the promise holds true for all of Sarah’s and Abraham’s descendants, not only for those who have the Law, but for all who have their faith. They are the mother and the father of us all, which is why scripture says, “I will make you the parents of many nations” — all of which is done in the sight of the God in whom they believed, the God who restores the dead to life and calls into being things that don’t exist. Hoping against hope, Sarah and Abraham believed, and so became the mother and father of many nations, just as it was once promised them: “Numerous as this will your descendants be.” Sarah and Abraham, without growing weak in faith, thought about their bodies, which were very old — he was about one hundred, and she was well beyond childbearing age. Still they never questioned or doubted God’s promise; rather, they grew strong in faith and gave glory to God, fully persuaded that God could do whatever was promised. Thus, Sarah’s and Abraham’s faith “was credited to them as righteousness.” The words, “was credited to them,” were not written with Sarah and Abraham alone in mind; they were intended for us, too. For our faith will be credited to us if we believe in the One who raised Jesus our Savior from the dead, the Jesus who was handed over to death for our sins and raised up for our justification.

Anthem

Love Divine
Sanctuary Choir

Howard Goodall

Love divine, all loves excelling, joy of heaven, to earth come down,
Fix in us thy humble dwelling, all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesu, thou art all compassion, pure unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation, enter every trembling heart.

Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit into every troubled breast,
Let us all in thee inherit, let us find that second rest:
Take away our power of sinning, Alpha and Omega be,
End of faith as its beginning, set our hearts at liberty.

Come, Almighty, to deliver, let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never, nevermore thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing, serve thee as thy hosts above;
Pray, and praise thee, without ceasing, glory in thy perfect love.

Finish then thy new creation; pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see thy great salvation, perfectly restored in thee.
Changed from glory into glory, ’til in heaven we take our place,
’Til we cast our crowns before thee, lost in wonder, love and praise.

+Reading from the Hebrew Scriptures — Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16

Gil Herrick

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you and will make you exceedingly numerous.” Then Abram fell on his face, and God said to him, “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you.” ... God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her and also give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.”

For the Word of God in Scripture,
For the Word of God among us,
And for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God!

Doing the work of Lent

Every year when Lent comes around, it is important to be reminded that Lent requires something of us. Lent is not passive. Lent does not simply happen to us; we have to make the conscious decision to engage ... to engage in the work of Lent. This year we invite you to discover what it means to do the work of Lent. We'll explore the spiritual practice of fasting and examine how our lifelong spiritual journeys inform the way we engage in the world around us.

Book study: Hard & Holy Work

We hope you'll join us this Lenten season in reading and studying Hard & Holy Work: A Lenten Journey through the Book of Exodus. This new book by Mary Alice Birdwhistell and Tyler Mayfield explores how Moses' spiritual awakening at the burning bush informed his involvement in the hard and holy work of liberation — and what that can mean for us. The book is available from major book retailers.

■ Discussion Group. On Sundays from 9 to 9:45 a.m., Darren DeMent and Katie Murray are leading a discussion group on the book in Room 1205-G. Ends Palm Sunday, March 24.

■ Sunday School. Several classes, including Youth, are studying the book during Lent.

■ Family Study Guide. A guide for parents to use with children is available in the church office and can be downloaded at wilshirebc.org/lent.

Sundays and Wednesdays

Senior Pastor Timothy Peoples will focus on the spiritual practice of fasting in his Lenten messages. While we often think of it only in terms of food, fasting is an intentional letting go to make space to hear sacred whispers or accept holy interruptions. On Wednesdays at 6 p.m. in Community Hall, Timothy is leading “talk-back” sessions that expand on his Sunday messages.

Lenten playlist

Wilshire's eclectic Lenten playlist is available on the streaming music service Spotify. Search Spotify for “Doing the work of Lent - Lent 2024” or find the link at wilshirebc.org/lent.

Holy Week

- Road to Resurrection interactive experience, Palm Sunday, March 24, 9–11 a.m.
- Maundy Thursday service, March 28, 7:30 p.m.
- Easter Sunday, March 31. Sunrise service, T&P Hill at White Rock Lake, 6:45 a.m.

Family Lenten Experience Palm Sunday, March 24 9–11 a.m. Community Hall

Join us in traveling the path of Jesus during his last week on earth in this hour-long multigenerational event geared for all ages. We'll create and wave palm branches, taste the Passover meal, visit the Garden of Gethsemane and join in other engaging experiences by visiting five sequential stations, rotating every 10 minutes in small groups.

The event is open to everyone from 9 to 9:30 a.m. with one group starting at 9 and another group at 9:15. Please sign up for a time; use the QR code or find the link at wilshirebc.org/events/road-to-resurrection.

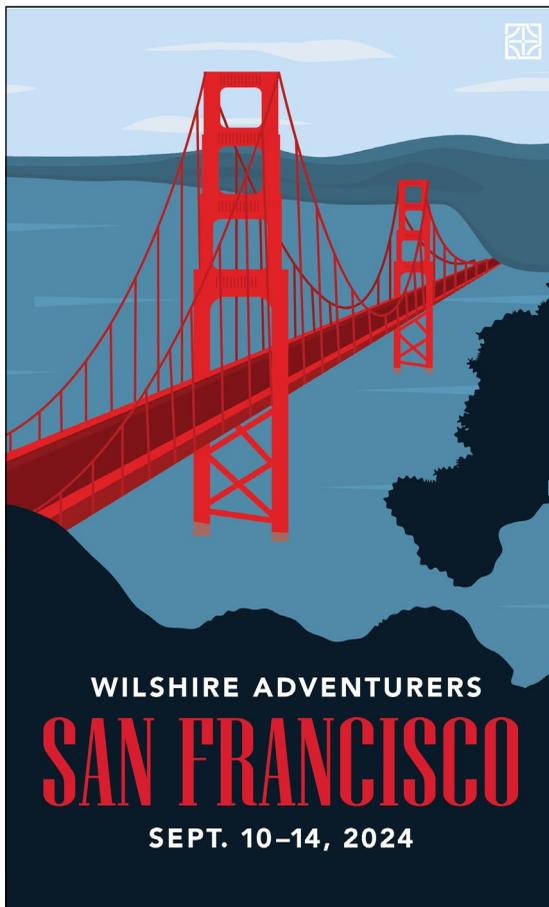

Older preschoolers and children's kindergarten through 6th grade Sunday School classes will participate during Sunday School from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Hometown: It's complicated!

Present City: Dallas (Lake Highlands)

Education: Baylor University, Bachelor of Music and Master of Business Administration

Profession: Public Finance Investment Banker

Tell us about your family?

I was raised in a very strong Catholic family, with my parents heavily involved in the church choir, youth activities and Sunday School. My mom was on staff at our church in Oklahoma for a time and directed the choir. I have two younger siblings, a brother who lives in Galveston and a sister in New Braunfels. All three of us have three kids of our own — each boy-girl-boy in birth order and very close in age, which makes our cousin get-togethers HIGH energy and just so much fun. Katie and I have three kids, Drew, 7, Annie, 5, and James, 3, and our days are filled with sports, dance and piano lessons, birthday parties and playdates. As busy as we are, watching each of them experience the world in their own way and on their own time is the greatest joy of my life.

How about your work or volunteer life?

Professionally, I help public entities issue bonds to finance capital projects (Collin Yarbrough thinks it's fascinating). Our clients include cities, counties, water authorities, higher education institutions and state agencies, but my favorite work is with local school districts. Particularly in Texas, public school finance is a consistent political hot button, and there is a certain amount of "fight" you have to bring to the job, which I love.

Any favorite hobbies?

I enjoy running; I'm a failed marathoner, but too stubborn/prideful to give it up just yet. I have a hate-love relationship with golf, but keep going out there likely for the same reasons, and I will almost always jump at the opportunity to attend any sporting event (though my favorite is taking my kids to see their Baylor Bears).

What brought you to Wilshire and when?

We first moved to Dallas in January 2011 and joined Wilshire after Katie started working as a missions intern that year.

Where are you engaged at Wilshire?

I am a newly ordained deacon and currently serve on the finance committee. I attend the Labyrinth Sunday School Class and have previously taught seventh and eighth grade Sunday School.

What do you think God is up to in your life right now?

I have a lifetime of introspective faith, undoubtedly thanks to my Catholic upbringing, and while I'm still trying to decipher exactly how, I feel very strongly that God is pushing me to focus more externally, being more attentive to the needs of his people — or what Timothy calls "exhaling."

TEXT. Text WILSHIRE and a dollar amount (ex: WILSHIRE 50) to 73256.

DONATE STOCKS. Contact Lori to learn how to donate appreciated stocks.

FROM YOUR IRA. For those over 70.5 years old, tax-free IRA gifts offer a financial benefit and may reduce future tax burdens.

Scan QR code with your smartphone camera to make an electronic contribution.

At Wilshire, we use a one-fund approach to giving called the Unified Budget. Your gifts support the basic mission, ministry and operations of the church. Once the Unified Budget is fulfilled, gifts overflow into visionary aspects of our mission.
